Dear members and guests,

The Keighley Association of Engineers is pleased to announce its May 2015 event, a day visit to Saltburn by the Sea. On arrival we will visit the works of Tees Components. We will then go for lunch at a café close to the Cleveland Ironstone Mining Museum, which we will visit afterwards. To speed up the service, the café has requested menu choices in advance and members are asked to indicate their requirements when making their application for attendance.

Tees Components Ltd

Tees Components was established in 1963 as a machining and fabrication sub-contractor and is located near Saltburn-by-the-sea, in the North East of England, with 75 employees. Over the past 45 years the company has been involved in a wide range of major power generation, marine, and tunnelling projects, building the six-acre (24,300 m²) site into one of the UK's most comprehensive heavy engineering facilities. Tees Components also design and produce the Tees White Gill Thruster propulsion unit, fitted in vessels worldwide.

The Cleveland Ironstone Mining Museum

The Cleveland Ironstone Mining Museum is unique in that it is the only museum located on the actual site of a former ironstone mine. Loftus Mine was worked from 1865 to 1958 and was the third largest in the Cleveland District, employing in its heyday over 500 men and boys.

The tour will include a short film, explanation of plans and artefacts and demonstration of fans and ventilation systems before entry to the drift. Once in the workings there will be a pause with a period of darkness before moving by candlelight to the face where the drill and blast process will be demonstrated.

Join us at the car park behind Keighley JD Wetherspoon from 07:45 for a prompt 08:00 a.m. start via the midi coach from JAK Travel. We look forward to your company.
