Dear members and guests,

The Keighley Association of Engineers is pleased to announce its first 2018 event in the 2017 syllabus, an illustrated talk by Ian McKay FIExpE. Of Bancroft Mill Engine Museum

On "Things that go bump in the night"

Ian is a grand master of explosions who recently demolished a mill chimney. This should prove to be a real fire cracker of a talk – do not miss this.

Prompt attendance for a 7.30 start is requested. We look forward to your company once again kindly hosted by Phoenix Service Solutions in Keighley.
